

Charlene's Angels Newsletter October 2025

October tiptoed in wearing a crown of crisp leaves and golden light—and we twirled right into its rhythm. Each day unfolded like a chapter in a storybook, bursting with laughter, adventure, and moments that stitched themselves into our hearts. We didn't just pass the time—we embraced it. Movie days turned into memory-makers, and bowling afternoons echoed with cheers that could rival any stadium. Chuck E. Cheese and Dave & Buster's brought out our competitive spirit, while Brozzini's pizza and Chili's reminded us that joy often hides in the simplest things—like a shared slice or a table full of smiles. We wandered through ZooBoo's whimsical paths and explored the wonders of the Indianapolis Children's Museum. At Creative Grounds Fine Arts Academy, Disney's Dare to Dream Jr. lit up our imaginations and reminded us that dreams are always within reach. Shopping trips became more than errands—they were lessons in independence and the power of choice. Zumba and high-energy workouts kept our spirits soaring, and our weekly music class continues to bring us joy, rhythm, and connection. Inside the classroom, creativity blooms like wildflowers. We're fostering growth in social, language, and math skills within an environment grounded in purpose, positivity, and genuine care. And at the heart of it all is our beloved Cup of Grace coffee cart—where baking becomes a bridge to learning, and every cookie is a triumph. To our amazing team and beloved clients—you are the soul, the spark, and the steady beat that keeps this community thriving. Together, we're not just creating moments—we're crafting something truly extraordinary. Every day is a celebration of joy, growth, and connection, woven into a tapestry of unforgettable experiences.

~Staff Spotlight~

Alana started in the classroom at Charlene's Angels, where she spent several years working directly with clients. These days, her main role is in Human Resources, helping things run smoothly behind the scenes. She's been with the team for over seven years and still loves being part of such a caring, client-focused environment. If you ever have questions about PAC or Respite, Alana's always happy to help.
